SECTION 3: GENERAL PRINCIPLES

3.1. TM CAPABILITY DESCRIPTION.

a. Military Personnel. The TM capability for military personnel ensures effective and efficient, consistent and repeatable policies and procedures are employed throughout the military personnel cycle. This includes assignments, training and development, performance, evaluations, promotions, fitness, benefits and health services, discipline, reenlistment and retention. DCMA's mission, vision and goals are designed to strengthen military members who support DCMA's mission readiness. The management of this critical personnel capability is key to the success of DCMA's mission.

(1) Assignments. The movement and transfer of military personnel from other Military Departments to DCMA provides key specialized experience needed to support DCMA operations. This includes administering assignment actions, executing individual assignments and generating transfer orders.

(2) Training and Development. Once a service member is assigned to DCMA, career development is vital for individual and organizational mission success. This capability will enhance professional skills, competency development, and outline career paths. It will identify credentialing and certification requirements (e.g., Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) and Acquisition Corps Membership), professional military education requirements, manage class seat quotas, manage continuous learning points and other agency training requirements.

(3) Performance. This activity is associated with administering the performance evaluation process, personnel promotions and recognition programs.

(4) Fitness. This activity ensures military members meet their respective Service's physical fitness standards and requirements, which supports DCMA's military readiness.

(5) Separations and Retirement. This activity manages military separations and retirements. Processes and procedures will be effected through checklists and out-processing functions.

b. DCMA Strategic Plan Alignment. The TM capability aligns to the DCMA strategic plan through the Goal 3 Human Capital initiatives to create an agile learning organization and culture that strives to exceed customer expectations by hiring, training, developing and retaining a diverse, motivated and engaged workforce.
