   2.4.4. Provide job information, application process, and employment counseling to persons eligible for preference upon their request.

   2.4.5. Register and refer military spouses/family members eligible for preference.
CHAPTER 3
PROCEDURES

3.1. CONDITIONS FOR MILITARY SPOUSE PREFERENCE.

3.1.1. A military spouse who relocates on the active duty military member’s orders to the new permanent duty station is entitled to military spouse preference (MSP) for positions in the commuting area of the new duty station.

3.1.2. Military spouse preference applies if the active duty military member and spouse are married before the active duty military member’s reporting date at the new duty station.

3.1.3. A spouse is eligible for MSP beginning 30 days prior to the active duty military member’s reporting date to the new duty station.

3.1.4. A spouse can be considered for MSP once he or she arrives in the foreign area location.

3.1.5. A spouse with less than 6 months remaining in the area may be non-selected for a permanent continuing position.

3.1.6. Military spouse preference does not apply to relocation due to the active duty military member’s career separation or retirement.

3.2. TERMINATION OF ELIGIBILITY FOR MSP. A spouse shall retain MSP after relocation to a new duty station until:

3.2.1. Accepting or declining a continuing position from any Federal agency in the commuting area.

3.2.2. Failing to maintain eligibility.

3.2.3. Refusal to participate in established competitive recruitment procedures (e.g., interview, responding to Knowledge, Skills and Abilities (KSA)).

3.2.4. Is no longer interested in being referred.

3.3. APPLICATION OF MSP.

3.3.1. Spouses do not have preference over veteran’s preference eligibles.

3.3.2. Noncompetitive sources may be used to fill a position without regard to MSP; for example, persons eligible for Expedited Hiring Authority (EHA), Veterans’ Recruitment Appointment (VRA), 30 percent or more disabled veteran, reinstatement eligible, transfer eligible, change-to-lower-grade, or Executive Order (E.O.) 13473, “To Authorize Certain Noncompetitive Appointments in the Civil Service for Spouses of Certain Members of the Armed Forces” (Reference (e)).

3.3.3. A spouse must be determined best qualified (BQ) for the position.

3.3.4. When more than one BQ military spouse is referred, selection from the group of military spouses may be made in any order.

3.3.5. A spouse may accept or decline an unlimited number of non-continuing positions without loss of their MSP. However, when a spouse accepts a time-limited appointment, the spouse is not eligible for MSP for other non-continuing positions until 60 days prior to the expiration of the appointment.

3.3.6. DoD Military Spouse Preference Program (Program S) of the DoD Priority Placement Program (PPP) Operations Handbook (Reference (f)) applies to competitive service positions in the continental United States.

3.3.6.1. In geographic areas where there is no registering DoD Human Resource (HR) office in the commuting area, the AST will counsel and register eligible military spouses when requested by the military spouse before departing from or arriving at the active member’s duty station. In cases where there is a registering DoD HR office in the commuting area, AST will provide the spouse with documentation (i.e., documentation of E.O. eligibility, completed SF-75, Request for Preliminary Employment Data) as applicable and coordinate with the HR office for a courtesy appointment as necessary.

3.3.6.2. When filling a position competitively, a Military Spouse registrant is entitled to spouse preference if he or she ranks as BQ under the activity’s crediting plan (also called skills requisition/skills list).

3.3.6.3. If all Priority 1 and 2 resumes have been cleared, offers to BQ military spouses are mandatory under competitive procedures.

3.3.7. Military Spouse Preference in a Foreign Area.

3.3.7.1. A spouse with competitive status will be given a competitive appointment if the position is restricted to U.S. nationals.

3.3.7.2. A spouse selected for a temporary position will be appointed using the Schedule A, section 213.3106(b)(6) of Title 5, Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) (Reference (g)) family-member appointment authority.

3.3.7.3. IAW DoD Instruction 1400.25 (Reference (g)), regardless of personal competitive status, a U.S. citizen military spouse selected for a vacant local national (LN) position will be appointed under Schedule A, section 213.3106(b)(6) of Title 5, CFR family-member appointment authority. Establishment of a General Schedule or Federal Wage System.
position with duties corresponding to the vacant LN position will be necessary for the appointment. Veteran preference does not apply to positions designated for LN occupancy.

3.3.7.4. IAW DoD Instruction 1400.25 (Reference (g)), a spouse with competitive status serving in an LN designated position under Schedule A, section 213.3106(b)(6) of Title 5, CFR family-member appointment who is selected for a U.S. position will be processed as a “conversion to reinstatement.”

3.3.7.5. A spouse who is not a U.S. citizen will be given the same consideration as U.S. citizen spouses for LN vacancies. This applies to all foreign areas except where host-nation agreements or treaties provide otherwise.

3.3.7.6. Preference may not be used when one member of a dual-military couple retires or separates from the military and seeks Federal employment in the same commuting area. The spouse separating is eligible for Family Member No Preference (FMNP).

3.4. FAMILY MEMBER PREFERENCE (FMP) IN A FOREIGN AREA.

3.4.1. Family members will be given preference in employment when filling positions competitively through external placement procedures at the General Schedule (GS)-1 through GS-15 and equivalent levels.

3.4.2. Family members may apply for employment 30 days before their anticipated arrival however, preference only applies to the commuting area of the sponsor and once the family member arrives at the foreign location.

3.4.3. Family member preference applies to initial appointment to a continuing position including temporary positions of 1-year or longer, at each duty location.

3.4.4. Family members of locally hired civilian employees are not entitled to FMP.

3.4.5. Family members with competitive status will receive competitive appointments when applying for positions that are restricted to U.S. citizens.

3.4.6. IAW DoD Instruction 1400.25 (Reference (h)), family members with competitive status appointed to an LN designated position under Schedule A, section 213.3106(b)(6) of Title 5, CFR family member appointment who is subsequently selected for a U.S. position will be processed as a “conversion to reinstatement.”

3.4.7. IAW DoD Instruction 1400.25 (Reference (h)), family members selected for temporary employment will be appointed using the Schedule A, section 213.3106(b)(6) of Title 5, CFR appointment authority.

3.4.8. Family member preference ends when a “family member” obtains or declines a continuing Appropriated Fund (APF) or Non-appropriated Fund (NAF) position with any Federal agency (including employment with Army and Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES), Navy Exchange, Stars and Stripes, and other DoD Components).

3.5. ORDER OF PREFERENCE IN THE FOREIGN AREA.

3.5.1. A spouse of an active duty military member must be determined BQ and referred on a competitive referral list. An MSP is the highest preference among family members.

3.5.2. An FMP will be given preference after MSP eligible spouses have been considered.

3.5.3. An FMNP will be considered, but will not be listed among the preference eligible.

3.6. EXCEPTIONS.

3.6.1. Exceptions to spouse preference procedures will be rare and based only on compelling hardship to DCMA or the registrant (i.e., lengthy security process).

3.6.2. HC Executive Director will review requests for exceptions and notify supervisors, in writing, when the exception has been approved/disapproved.

3.6.3. The supervisor/manager must prepare a written request for an exception to spouse preference to include the preference eligible’s resume, a written explanation describing the reason for the exception request, a copy of the job description, and the job opportunity announcement.
