"The experience and training that I received while working in International allowed me the chance to grow as an individual in a way that would not have been possible if I had remained in CONUS."
— Mr. John Collmer, DCMA Boston

"It isn't for the fainthearted — you have to be accountable and responsible for managing your life and career in new ways which will challenge you, but I know I've grown from the challenges and have gained the confidence to take on others."
— Ms. Julie Sexton, DCMA Northern Europe (UK)

"Working at DCMA in Saudi Arabia has been an extremely interesting and rewarding experience. Not only am I learning about new cultures, but I am an active participant and observer of history on an 'international scale.' The lessons that I have learned will be with me for the rest of my life!"
— Ms. Denise M. Lane-Porter, DCMA Saudi Arabia

"I worked with the Japanese on a day-to-day basis (aircraft repair), traveled to Indonesia (fuels) and spent many weeks in Taiwan on varied assignments up and down the island working with the Taiwanese military officials and also traveling on their trains, plane, taxis and buses."
— Mr. Grant Walker, DCMA Boeing Wichita
